

Trailblazer Day 8th April 2011

It was good to meet up with Andrew Street after 57 years. I remember Andrew as a powerful speedy winger in the first ever College soccer XI. After the usual salutations and my comments regarding his sleek boyhood hairstyle, he explained it was styled in the fashion of our hero of the time, the great Stanley Matthews. I did not realise it at the time but Andy certainly looked like Matthews, Thanks Andy that made my day!

Also, Spinks and Coppin invite Joan to sit on the back seat of the bus to Wymondham Museum.

Suitable caption: "Quite an accomplishment!"
